PETITIONING THE COURTTo issue a warrant.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following conditions of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

- 1 Mandatory Condition # 2: The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state, or local crime.

Supporting Evidence: On October 19, 2013, the defendant was arrested by the Yakima County Sheriff's Office (YSO), in Yakima, Washington, and charged with first degree burglary, case number 13C15833.

According to the YSO narrative, on October 19, 2013, the defendant was observed walking near a homeowners' fence, when he opened the fence gate and walked through. The homeowner stated the defendant had his coat pulled up over his head and held a knife with the blade out. The homeowner stated when he approached the back yard, she yelled at him to go away and slammed the door. She reported, he turned, walked toward the garage, and entered, closing the door and locking it behind him. The homeowners stated they did not know the man and had never seen him before. Officers subsequently located the defendant who was hiding in the garage and was found in possession of an 8-inch knife.

It should be noted the status of the charge is unknown at this time as the defendant is currently in the custody of the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE).

2 Special Condition # 1: You are prohibited from returning to the U.S. without advance legal permission from the U.S. Attorney General or his designee. Should you reenter the U.S., you are required to report to the probation office within 72 hours of reentry.

Supporting Evidence: The defendant illegally reentered the U.S. without permission on or about October 19, 2013, as noted in violation 1. According to the ICE, the defendant was deported to Mexico on August 29, 2012, at San Ysidro, California, and has not obtained legal permission to reenter the U.S.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant to answer the allegations contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
